Bro. T. K. Doty of Cleveland, O.: "I was converted about forty-five years ago. I became a business man in Cleveland, Ohio. It was there I was introduced to a Mrs. Farmer, who said to me: Do you enjoy the blessed experience of holiness? She added looking me straight in the eye, You may have as beautiful an experience as St. Paul. I began to think about it. For about three weeks I was praying and under deep conviction, when I heard a brother get up and testify. I saw it was for everybody; that it was the Fathers will that we should be sanctified. I gave up everything. I died out to self. I didn't have any great emotion, but I knew I had the experience. I went to a camp meeting, and found that they had the same thing. I didn't know but what they had something better! God cleansed my heart, and I felt so clean. I have been testifying to it for twenty-four years. Let us pray mightily that God may make this Assembly a great blessing, and that He may put His seal on this meeting."
