Vol. I -- Named Accounts

T. H. NELSON

Bro. T. H. Nelson of Indianapolis, Ind.: "I want to thank God that He saved me. I want to thank God for a religion that cost everything. For years, I worshipped God with a string of beads in my pocket. Sixteen years ago, I took these out of my pocket, to find peace in Jesus. After that though I was not up and down in my experience, and was constantly victorious, I found an involuntary shrinking, an involuntary rebellion, until I became sanctified. I think we ought to be more definite. There are some who think they are sanctified, but are only justified. There is that involuntary rebellion still there. When God sanctified me, He took out that disposition to walk limpingly. Thank God it had to go, and now I have deliverance through the blood of Jesus." ("Amen!")
